I understand that if for some reason my child cannot attend the Homework Club, I will send an email to swanseahomeworkclub@gmail.com to notify the Homework Club Coordinator.

I understand that students will meet with volunteer tutors and together will work on homework and review teacher expectations, participate in learning activities and learn study strategies. While the intent is to support each child with their school work, the Swansea Town Hall Homework Club is a volunteer based initiative and not a tutoring service. I understand that the Swansea Town Hall Homework Club makes no commitment to the improvement of the overall grades of my child at school.

I understand that all students must adhere to the following expectations:

- Be punctual (arrive on time, attend on a regular basis)
- Be prepared to learn, participate in activities, etc
- Be respectful (towards the tutors and other students)

If a student does not adhere to the rules/regulations, the parents/guardians will receive a letter and on the subsequent incident, the parents/guardians will be informed that their child is dismissed from the club. The Swansea Town Hall Homework Club reserves the right to suspend attendance privileges to any child.
